NTI is a five-year, $9 million dollar initiative funded through the Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Children’s Bureau, Grant #90CO1121. The contents of this infographic do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the funder, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

I have been able to use the knowledge and understanding I gained from this training in almost every area of my job!

NTI has an aligned curriculum for Mental Health Professionals, building the capacity of communities to provide the services families need.

Bring NTI to your own community or agency! For more information contact: wilson@adoptionsupport.org.

NTI is a 20-hour state-of-the-art, web-based training for Child Welfare Professionals.

Designed to improve the well-being and permanency outcomes for children in foster care and in adoptive or guardianship families, NTI’s impact is far reaching.

Building the capacity of the child welfare workforce, NTI effectively addresses mental health and other complex challenges of children and their families.

No comparable cross-systems trainings exist!

“...”