

Adoption Competency Training for Child Welfare Professionals

Dive deeper into the core issues of adoption and guardianship...

Tuition-free, web-based, state-of-the-art training!

Modules focus on assessment, support and therapeutic interventions which promote family stability and improve well-being for children in foster care, adoptive and guardianship placements.

Enhance your foundational knowledge, values, and skills for adoption competent casework and practice!

- ✓ Focuses on the behavioral and mental health needs of children moving toward adoption or guardianship.
- ✓ Improved capacity to apply trauma-informed, attachment-based casework.
- ✓ Provides a companion supervisor curricula with downloadable coaching activity guide to support application of learning to practice.
- ✓ Increased knowledge of the complexities of adoption, kinship and guardianship.
- ✓ Enhanced professional skills needed to promote stability and permanency for children and their families.

Learn more at www.adoptionsupport.org/nti

The National Adoption Competency Mental Health Training Initiative (NTI) is developing state-of-the-art web-based adoption competency mental health trainings for child welfare and mental health professionals. NTI is a service of the Children's Bureau, Administration on Children and Families, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services and led by the Center for Adoption Support and Education (C.A.S.E.). Grant #90CO1121.

nurture.
inspire. empower.

Available
Nationally
2020!

Piloted In 2018:

California
Cherokee Nation
Illinois
Oklahoma
Maine
Minnesota
South Carolina Tennessee
Washington

YOU CAN DIVE DEEPER