How Does NTI Impact Workforce Excellence?

NTI Impact Points have been added to the center diagram from the National Child Welfare Workforce Institute.

NTI supports shared understanding between NTI has specific lessons to deepen knowledge in supporting transracial child welfare and mental health systems: NTI helps to build a network of adoption families and youth/parents who competent professionals. identify as LGBTQ+ NTI web-based training can help quickly and easily COMMUNITY INCLUSIVITY onboard new staff to understand ENGAGEMENT RACIAL EQUITY the needs of foster/adoptive/kinship families even as they wait for NTI increases worker pre-service training. confidence and self-efficacy. PHASE 1 which can positively impact workforce retention. NTI helps organizations meet the FFPSA requirement for a skilled, competent EDUCATION/ PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT workforce; increases the capacity of organizations to address challenges that compromise well-being NTI is focused on best and family stability. henting Workforce Et practices for addressing mental health challenges that can surface when working with children, youth, and families. NTI strengthens supervisors' PHASE 3 skills to coach staff with a "Supervisor Coaching and Activity Guide" and "Module Tip Sheets." WORKLOAD NTI equips leaders and staff with NTI provides implementation support skills and tools to reduce the workload and consultation/coaching for leaders burden and increase efficiency with to implement training and support better outcomes. transfer of learning of their staff.

Learn more about NTI Training: www.adoptionsupport.org/nti

Funded through the Dept. of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Children's Bureau, Grant #90CO1121.