

Bring Adoption-Competent, Trauma-Informed Support to Your Child's School!

Every child deserves to learn in an environment where they feel understood, supported, and safe. C.A.S.E.'s School-Based Mental Health Professionals Training equips school counselors, social workers, psychologists, and other staff to meet the unique needs of students who have experienced adoption, foster care, or other trauma.

This nationally recognized program—built by the Center for Adoption Support + Education (C.A.S.E.)—helps schools:

- Strengthen relationships with students + families
- Create inclusive, trauma-responsive classrooms
- Build confidence and capacity among mental health staff

School-Based Mental Health
Professionals Training

4 Easy Ways to Get Involved

You can help bring this training to your community:

- 1 Share the brochure or link with your school leaders (take extras!)
- 2 Talk to your PTSA about sponsoring the training
- 3 Reach out to your child's teachers, counselors, and social workers
- 4 Champion adopt on-competent, trauma-informed education as part of your school's mental health plan

When Families + Schools Partner, Students Thrive!

- Students feel supported.
- Educators feel empowered.
- Schools become safer, more inclusive spaces.

Let's work together to ensure every child can learn and grow in a community that understands their story.

Learn more or get started:

EMAIL: info@adoption-support.org

VISIT: adoption-support.org/schools

School-Based Mental Health
Professionals Training